

Astrogenealogy

Each person who is born brings with them an important code of energy to experience, develop, grow and fulfill the mission of their soul. This, according to a specific date, time, and place, but above all, with a specific family, which in turn keeps countless scripts of life on their ancestors.

Whether they are known or hidden, these stories of love and dislike of our ancestors, connect us through "invisible threads"; Causing many times to repeat situations of conflict, problems with couples or with children, illness, limitations, shortages, failures and stagnations, as did our parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, and so on.

The study of Astrogenealogy teaches us a new way of looking at the loyalties in our family system through the conjugation of the ancient wisdom of astrology and the family constellations (created by Bert Hellinger). It also provides us with a profound therapeutic tool to heal and release the systemic obstacles or obstacles that prevent us from experiencing the fullness of our existence in affective relationships, work, health or prosperity, among others.

In its approach, Astrogenealogy, allows to unravel these knots from two perspectives, either through the exploration of the natal chart, where the planets and their aspects expose the existing difficulties, or by means of the casting the natal map in a morphogenetic field, where the familiar soul is revealed ", To restore his love order.

Looking at our family history through astrological connections and its relationships with systemic symbols, leads us to those secrets and contradictions, which, being recognized and integrated, get the path not only of individual healing, but of the freedom of the next ones Generations and of the profound unity with Alma Mater of our universal essence.
